Not on the Government Reservation.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—Secretary Smith said today that he had no knowledge that the Corbett-Fitzsimmons prize fight managers were intending to have the fight on the Government reservation at Hot Springs, Ark., but that should any attempt be made to have the fight on the reservation he would see that the law was enforced. Corbett and Fitzsimmons would not be granted a permit from the Interior Department, and if any of the lessees should grant the privilege of a fight upon the lands they had obtained from the Government, that he would revoke the lease of such person.

ALLEGHANY INSTITUTE.
A Pleasant Entertainment Yesterday.
Football Game To-day.

The regular weekly meeting of the John Randolph Literary Society was held yesterday afternoon and a very interesting programme was presented.
"The annexation of further territory to the United States" was discussed in debate, the affirmative being well presented by Joseph Dupuy and Edward Seeligson and the negative was supported by Charles Johnson and Spencer McLain. "A Character Sketch of George Eliot" was given by Henry Brooke. "Current Events" were presented by Thomas Bransford and proved a very interesting feature. A humorous reading by Conn Gano was much enjoyed. The programme was brought to a close with a selection from Lamb's "Merchant of Venice" by Tayloe Rogers.

The institute football team plays its first game of the season to-day at Salem.
A large delegation of Alleghany students will cheer the boys on to victory. They leave at 2:30 p. m. in a special car.

A NEW PLAY.
"Poe or the Raven" Produced in Baltimore Last Night.

BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 11.—Creston Clarke, the tragedian, produced at the Lyceum theatre here to night a new play called "Edgar Allen Poe, or the Raven," written by George Hasleton, Jr., in Washington, D. C. The theme of the play is the story of loves of Poe. first for his cousin Virginia Clemm, and later for Helen Whitman. The first act is laid in Richmond, Va., and is devoted to the early courtship of the poet and his quarrel with his foster father.

The second act is laid in Fordham, N. Y., and tells the story of Poe's struggle with poverty and distress, ending with the death of his wife. In the third act Helen Whitman prevents the poet from committing suicide at the grave of his dead wife, and the last act is shifted to the city where the life of the poet ended.

The play, although dealing with the saddest passages in a life full of sadness, is not devoid of comedy and is replete with lines containing wit and true poetic feeling. It was well received by a large and cultivated audience.

Poisoning by Wholesaler.

CATANIA, Sicily, Oct. 11.—A woman known as Gaetana Stomoli has been arrested for the wholesale poisoning of children with phosphorus. She administered the poison by mixing it with wine and prevailing upon the children to drink the mixture. Her victims already number twenty three. It is stated that they all died in fearful agonies. The woman has confessed to having committed the deed and offered as an explanation that she was deterred by the death of her own children, who had been bewitched.
